MOTION TO OMIT PLAINTIFF'S TREATING PHYSICIANS' EXPERT REPORTS FROM PLAINTIFF'S PRE-TRIAL STATEMENT

AND NOW comes the Plaintiff, Jordan Miles, through his counsel, J. Kerrington Lewis, Esquire and the law firm of Lewis, Lewis & Reilly, who presents this Motion to Omit Plaintiff's Treating Physicians' Expert Reports from Plaintiff's Pre-Trial Statement, and in support thereof avers the following:

- Plaintiff's Pre-Trial Statement was filed in the above-captioned case on April 27, without incorporating Plaintiff's treating physicians' expert reports as required by Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
- 2. Plaintiff and Defendants have agreed that it is unnecessary to attach the said Plaintiff's treating physicians' expert reports to the Plaintiff's Pre-Trial Statement filed in this case and the reports have been supplied to Defendants.
